TireHub Appoints John Cavanaugh As Chief Financial Officer

Date : 29-06-2023

Experienced tire industry executive will help drive TireHub's continued growth

ATLANTA (June 28, 2023) - TireHub, the national tire distributor co-founded by Bridgestone Americas Inc. (Bridgestone) and The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company (Goodyear), announced today that it has appointed John Cavanaugh to the role of chief financial officer (CFO), effective July 1.

"John is a seasoned finance executive who brings more than 15 years of tire industry experience to TireHub," said TireHub CEO Ted Becker. "I am confident he will add a new level of strategic vision to our leadership team as we continue our trajectory of dynamic growth."

An industry veteran, Cavanaugh worked at Goodyear for over 15 years in a variety of financial leadership positions. Most recently, he served as CFO & VP of Administration at GOJO Industries, Inc, the global leader in B2B hand hygiene solutions.

"I am excited to join TireHub in its mission to transfom the industry as it focuses on the needs of dealers and their growth," said TireHub's newest executive John Cavanaugh. "It is a privilege to join this leadership team and build upon the already strong foundation."

Outgoing CFO Scott King will aid in the transition before stepping down to begin his retirement later this year.

TireHub was founded in 2018 and now operates 80 TireHub Logistics Centers across the country.

##

About TireHub

Headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, TireHub is a national tire distributor that provides U.S. tire dealers and retailers a comprehensive range of passenger and light truck tires from two of the world's leading tire companies, Bridgestone and Goodyear. TireHub offers easy online ordering, a knowledgeable and customer-focused sales force, breadth and depth of premium products and a nationwide footprint of logistics centers and warehouses. Created for tire experts by tire experts, TireHub will distribute the highest quality product possible so its customers can put their customers on tires they'll love. For more information, visit www.tirehub.com.